

Philip Andrew Gudgeon

CEO
SCHNEIDER GROUP

GudgeonP@schneider-group.com

Tel. +7 / 495 / 956 55 57 ext. 4946

-
- Philip Gudgeon joined SCHNEIDER GROUP in 2020 as CEO and is responsible for the management of all 12 SCHNEIDER GROUP offices with more than 500 employees.
 - Before moving to SCHNEIDER GROUP he was a Partner in the international consulting firms Oliver Wyman and PricewaterhouseCoopers in Moscow and consulted international companies on strategy, process improvement, risk management, organization optimization and governance issues.
 - Philip's industry experience covers a broad range of financial services institutions (retail, corporate banking, and investment, insurance) for more than 25 years, including development of digital business models; additionally, he has led projects in other vertical sectors including Communications & Media, Oil & Gas, Metals & Mining and Retail.
 - Philip graduated from Cambridge University in Modern Languages before going on to further university studies in philosophy and theology. He is a qualified banker (Chartered Institute of Bankers, UK) and completed an executive MBA at the Kellogg Graduate School of Management, USA.
 - He started his career in banking as a Credit Analyst in Barclays Bank, UK before beginning his career in management consulting, initially in the UK and later in CEE and Russia.
 - Philip is active in thought leadership, publishing articles on management topics in leading business journals in Russia and elsewhere, and is a sought-after speaker at conferences and facilitator of corporate strategy sessions.
 - He is fluent in 5 languages (English, Russian, German, French and Italian).